Why paying by Direct Debit makes sense

- Direct Debit is a safe, secure and easy way to pay.
- You are protected by the Direct Debit guarantee (see below).
- We will always write to you to ask you whether you wish to renew your Membership and to remind you that your next set of Direct Debit payments are due. This means that you stay in control.
- With Direct Debit, you will never have to worry about missing a payment, leaving you free to enjoy your Membership.
- Direct Debit is the easiest payment option for the Museum to administer
- By saving us time and money, we are able to be more efficient with our Membership administration, which means that we can concentrate more of our Membership subscriptions back into the work of the Museum and our amazing vehicle collections.

The Direct Debit guarantee

- When you choose to pay your Membership subscription to the British Motor Museum by Direct Debit, you agree to authorise Direct Debits from the account detailed in this instruction subject to the safeguards assured by the Direct Debit guarantee. You understand that this instruction may remain with the British Motor Museum and if so, details will be passed electronically to your bank/building society.
- The guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit the British Motor Museum will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request the British Motor Museum to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by the British Motor Museum or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society. If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when the British Motor Museum asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
